

Sue and Carlyle's Family

By Sue

Sue Flanagan and Carlyle Franklin had two daughters, Sandra Lucille and Martha Gayle. Sandra was born in Lake City, FL during a visit from her grandfather, Arch J. Flanagan. Following her mother's divorce in 1979, the family moved to Greenville, SC and she finished high school at Wade Hampton High School. She graduated from N. C. State University with a degree in psychology. She worked for a year in Greensboro, NC then got a masters degree in psychology at Western Carolina University at Cullowhee. She worked as a family consultant for several years. Then she married Robert Pierce whom she met at N, C. State and they had a little boy, Benjamin in October 2004. She continues to work as an office coordinator for Family Consulting Services and Robert is a franchise supervisor for Wendy's Restaurants. They live in Youngsville, NC, near Raleigh.

Martha was born in 1971 in Gainesville, FL. She also graduated from Wade Hampton High School in Greenville, SC. She attended N. C. State University as Sandra had, an advantage since their father is a Professor at NCSU in Forestry. Martha earned a degree in communications and was a manager at Bath and Body works in Raleigh, NC. Following her marriage to Paul Pratto in Raleigh she started work in a bank. After their divorce, she worked for RBC in Fayetteville, NC and became a bank manager. She married Ben Lucas and they moved to Sanford, his home town. He is a commercial lender at Capital Bank in Sanford and she is a bank manager for RBC in Lillington, NC.
